

Independence

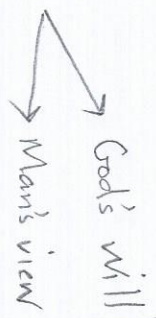

War of independence was over a year old when the continental Congress appointed a committee of five (including Thomas Jefferson, John Adams & Benjamin Franklin) to draft a document declaring the causes which impel the American colonies to separation.

Jefferson (33 yold) made the initial draft in 17 days. The committee submitted it draft to Congress on June 28, 1776

On July 2 congress voted for independence. Two days later after numerous edits Congress approved the Declaration by unanimous vote.
